ORDER STRIKING COMPLAINT (DOC. # 17)

The court recently issued an order granting defendants' motion to dismiss in this matter. Judgment has been entered in favor of defendants. It appears that the same day the court took those actions, pro se plaintiff Gerald Ross filed an amended complaint in this case, docketed two days after entry of the dispositive order.<sup>1</sup> Ross did not seek leave of court to file said complaint; however, the court also notes that the amended pleading would not have changed its analysis of the motion to dismiss. For these reasons, the court hereby STRIKES Ross's amended complaint (Doc. # 17).

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: January 22, 2013

<sup>1</sup>The document itself lists case no. 12-13473, the companion case that was transferred to the docket of the undersigned and consolidated with case no. 12-13387. Because no post-consolidation filings were permitted in case no. 12-13473, the document was filed as docket # 17 in case no. 12-13387.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

Copies of this Order were served upon attorneys of record and
